Media Alert

Applicant will ask for continuance of Proposed Special Use Permit for Wireless Tower in Yavapai Hills Tuesday, November 10 at 3 p.m.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PRESCOTT, AZ (November 9, 2020 4:45 p.m.) –The City of Prescott was just notified by the applicant, Pinnacle Consulting, Inc., that they will request that Council continue item Item 10 F - Proposed Special Use Permit for Wireless Tower in Yavapai Hills, to a future meeting. In an email to staff on Monday afternoon, Pinnacle representative Michelle Lamoureaux stated “Due to unforeseen circumstances with our current landlord we need to defer tomorrow’s meeting to an undetermined date.”

According to City Attorney Jon Paladini, since the item is on the Council agenda, City Council must move to continue the item.
